Portable Basketball Goals Recalled

Army and Air Force Exchange Services officials are recalling certain Lifetime portable basketball goals. The goals are being recalled due to a sharp protruding bolt on the player's side of the pole. Several consumers required stitches from injuries received while using the goals. AAFES sold the Lifetime basketball goals between January 1994 and July 2000. The following models are being recalled: 1225 "Pro Court;" 1507 "St Court;" and 1589 "Portable Acrylic." Consumers should stop using the basketball goals and contact Lifetime Products to receive a free cap nut to cover the bolt. Consumers can contact Lifetime Products, Inc., (800) 225-3865 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays or via the company's Web site at www.lifetime.com.

U.S. License Plates Forbidden

Driving on stateside license plates while being a member of the armed forces (active duty, contractor, DoD civilian as well as family members holding ID card privileges) in Germany is strictly forbidden under USAREUR Regulation 190-1. If your vehicle is being commercially shipped to Germany it must remain in the spot that it is delivered until you receive temporary USAREUR license plates from the Vehicle Registration office on Panzer Kaserne. For more info call 431-2833/civ. 07031-15833.

Officer Selection Boards Visit

The Department of the Army secretariat for Officer Selection Boards will visit the U. S. Army Europe theater May 13 to 17. Lt. Col. Mike Harris, chief DA secretariat and his board will be coming to Germany to present information briefs during the week. The video teleconference presentation from Heidelberg will be provided for officers in the 6th Area Support Group area of responsibility at two sites May 13, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Patch Barracks building 2358, and Kelley Barracks building 3322. Seating is limited so be on time. For more info call Royce Day, 421-2830/civ. 0711-729-2830.

Communications Security Reminders

U. S. Army Europe personnel will not process, store or send classified information on nonsecure telecommunications systems. Department of Defense telecommunications systems include computer networks, fax machines, modems, telephones and radios. Use of official DOD telecommunications systems constitutes user consent to information systems security monitoring.

Commanders will ensure the following telecommunications security notification requirements are met: Official DOD telephone or communications directories published in USAREUR will display the security notice on the front cover or prominently in the general information section; DD Form 2056 must be on telephones and fax machines within DOD, including secure telephones; a computer log-on security notice is on all computer systems and new personnel receive a briefing on the information above. For info call the 6th Area Support Group Security office, 421-2133/civ. 0711-729-2133.

Report Suspected Espionage Incidents

Community members can help prevent subversion and espionage by guarding against the collection efforts of foreign intelligence services.

Soldiers Attend PLDC

Soldiers with fewer than six months of Army service remaining can now attend the Primary Leadership Development Course if they join an Army Reserve or Army National Guard troop program unit upon leaving the active Army. Under current policy, soldiers incur a six-month service remaining obligation when they attend PLDC. The leadership course, which is the first level of instruction in the Noncommissioned Officer Education System, is a requirement for promotion to sergeant and beyond. Soldiers who are eligible to extend or re-enlist may still do so to continue their service and meet the service remaining requirement for PLDC. For information on the policy, contact the local servicing personnel service center or detachment.

Soldiers Sign Up For TSP

Soldiers who want to sign up for the Uniformed Services Thrift Savings Plan will have the chance to do so May 15 to July 31. New soldiers have 60 days from their enlistment date to sign up for the savings plan. Otherwise, soldiers may use two open seasons each year to join, quit or change the amount of their contributions. Currently, these periods are May 15 to July 31 and Nov. 15 to Jan. 31. Participants can invest any whole percentage (from one to seven percent) of their base pay into the Uniserv TSP in 2002.

Soldiers may also elect to contribute any amount of incentive pay or special pay, including bonus pay. The best way to enroll is by completing and submitting an application online via the Employee/Member Self Service Web site at www.dfas.mil/emss.
